Alabama	2.5 months	2.5 months	N/R	N/R	3.5 months	3.5 months	3.5 months	3.5 months	No	No

(In Alabama, annual reports are part of the Business Privilege Tax Return and are due 2.5 months from fiscal year-end or calendar year-end for domestic and foreign profit corporations [Corps] and 3.5 months from fiscal year-end or calendar year-end for domestic and foreign limited liability companies [LLCs] and domestic and foreign limited partnerships [LPs]. As of December 2, 2003, the Alabama Department of Revenue will no longer routinely mail the Alabama Business Privilege Tax Return & Annual Report form to corporations or limited liability entities. The forms are available on their website (www.ador.state.al.us) and can be requested at the following address: Alabama Department of Revenue, Business Privilege Tax Forms, P.O. Box 327900, Montgomery, AL 36132-7900.) [e.g., If the fiscal year-end for a Corp is December 31st, then the annual report is due on March 15th. If the fiscal year-end for a LLC is December 31st, then the annual report is due on April 15th.]

(In Oklahoma, annual reports are sent to the POA for profit Corps and to the RA address for LLCs and LPs. The annual certificates are sent out by the State 60 days prior to the due date. In general, foreign corps that filed their qualification based on authorized capital are exempt from filing annual certificates. Foreign corporations that filed their qualification based on invested capital must file an annual certificate each year. This situation could be changed, however, by filing an amendment, so we can't determine with absolute certainty if a foreign corporation needs to file an annual certificate. Clients should be referred to a corporate attorney, CPA and/or the Oklahoma Secretary of State Office [405-521-3912] for direction.)
